1.0 Bellevue Place Education Trust – Our commitment

Learn, Enjoy, Succeed

BPET is a growing family of autonomous schools that strive for excellence for the communities they serve. Our staff are empowered to balance academic rigour and curricular breadth to inspire confidence, creativity and respect. Our pupils are at the heart of everything we do as to LEARN, ENJOY and SUCCEED.

LEARN

We offer a breadth and ambition of provision that supports an exceptional academic education, nurturing every child's learning journey – regardless of ability, background or special educational needs – and helping them develop a lifelong passion for learning.

ENJOY

We believe learning should be enjoyable, and that through this enjoyment children develop life-long learning habits. We achieve this by creating opportunities for all children to reach their full potential at school, and to enjoy school life – helping to ensure pupils grow into happy, independent and confident learners.

SUCCEED

We strive for excellence, aiming to ignite ambition, aspiration, pride and a desire to contribute to society. We prepare our pupils to approach life with confidence, purpose and integrity.

Working together: the BPET way

We achieve far more by learning, supporting and collaborating within and across our network of schools and communities. We do so with an unwavering and shared commitment to equality, diversity, inclusion, and respect.

1 Introduction

- 1.1 BPET believes that in order to create a happy and successful adult life, children and young people need to have the self-confidence to make informed decisions about their wellbeing, health and relationships. Relationships Education and Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) is about giving children and young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds, not just intimate relationships. Health Education is giving pupils information to make well-informed, positive choices about their own health and wellbeing. BPET recognises that physical health and mental wellbeing are interlinked, and it is important that pupils understand that good physical health contributes to good mental wellbeing, and vice versa. BPET also recognises the importance of equipping pupils with the knowledge and skills to recognise when something is not right in relation to their own health or wellbeing, or that of others, and to know how and where to seek appropriate support.
- 1.2 BPET has a responsibility under the Equality Act 2010 to ensure the best for all pupils at its schools irrespective of disability, educational needs, race, nationality, ethnic or national origin, sex, gender identity, pregnancy, maternity, religion or sexual orientation. As a result, Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education will be sensitive to the different needs of individual pupils and may need to adapt and change over time to reflect the needs of the particular cohort. BPET will ensure that Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education promote equality, respect and dignity for all. Pupils will learn about the protected characteristics set out in the Equality Act 2010 in an age-appropriate way, recognising and respecting diversity while ensuring teaching remains factual, balanced and appropriate to pupils' age and stage of development. BPET may also take positive action, where it can be shown that it is proportionate, to deal with particular disadvantages affecting one group because of a protected characteristic.

- 1.3 BPET is aware of the need to be mindful of and respectful to a wide variety of faith and cultural beliefs across its schools and will make every attempt to be appropriately sensitive; equally it is essential that children and young people still have access to the learning they need to stay safe, healthy and understand their rights as individuals. BPET believes that its pupils deserve the right to honest, clear, impartial scientific and factual information to help better form their own beliefs and values, free from bias, judgement or subjective personal beliefs of those who teach them.
- 1.4 Teaching about relationships will reflect the diversity of families and relationships in modern Britain in an age-appropriate way. Where references are made to protected characteristics, including sexual orientation and gender reassignment, these will be taught factually, sensitively and in accordance with statutory guidance. Content will be integrated within the wider Relationships Education curriculum rather than delivered as a standalone unit.
- 1.5 This policy has been developed in consultation with parents, pupils and staff from all schools within BPET to ensure that it meets the needs of the whole school community. Consultation information is used to personalise the curriculum at each school.
- 1.6 The policy will be reviewed annually, or sooner where changes to legislation, statutory guidance or local circumstances require.

Comment:

Individual schools will need to consult parents when reviewing this policy. This may have already happened.

We suggest you also set out how the policy will be monitored e.g. feedback from pupils, staff, parents, classroom observations.

2 Aims and Objectives

- 2.1 Through the delivery of high quality, evidence-based and age-appropriate RSE, Relationships and Health Education, BPET aims to help prepare pupils for the onset of puberty, give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene, create a positive culture in relation to sexuality and relationships and to ensure pupils know how and when to ask for help and where to access support. By the end of their education BPET hopes pupils will have developed resilience and feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy in preparation for the responsibilities and experiences of adult life.
- 2.2 Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education are intended to help pupils to:

- Build healthy, respectful relationships focusing on family and friends.
- Understand how to be healthy and be aware of potential risk areas (such as drugs and alcohol).
- Learn about healthy relationships, growing and changing, puberty, human reproduction and the physical and emotional changes associated with becoming an adult in an age-appropriate and carefully sequenced way.
- Learn about mental wellbeing.
- Develop key personal attributes, such as kindness, integrity, generosity and honesty.

3 Definition of Relationships Education and Relationships and Sex Education (RSE)

- 3.1 Relationships Education at primary phase is about teaching the fundamental building blocks and characteristics of positive relationships, with particular reference to friendships, family relationships, and relationships with other children and with adults and who can support them. It includes how to take turns, how to treat each other with kindness, consideration and respect, the importance of honesty and truthfulness, permission seeking and giving, and the concept of personal privacy, establishing personal space and boundaries.
- 3.2 Relationships Education does not involve teaching the details of different forms of sexual activity but may include discussion of sensitive topics where necessary to help children recognise unsafe situations, protect themselves and know how to seek help.
- 3.3 RSE is lifelong learning about physical, sexual, moral and emotional development. It is about teaching about relationships, sex, sexuality and sexual health in a way that gives pupils the confidence to make sound decisions when facing risks and other challenges. It includes teaching about friendship, the importance of caring, stable and mutually supportive relationships with another person, and how to control and understand feelings that come with being in a relationship.
- 3.4 RSE does not encourage early sexual experimentation. It teaches children and young people to understand human sexuality and to respect themselves and others, to build self-esteem and understand the reasons for delaying sexual activity so that they can develop safe, fulfilling and healthy sexual relationships, at the appropriate time.
- 3.5 RSE will outline that there are different types of committed, stable relationships, the characteristics and legal status of other types of long-term relationships, the importance of marriage as a relationship choice and why it must be freely entered into, how relationships might contribute to human happiness and their importance for raising children, as well as highlighting the roles and responsibilities of parents with respect to raising children, characteristics of successful parenting and how to judge when relationships have become unsafe as well as how to seek help or advice and report concerns about others.

4 Roles and Responsibilities

All members of the BPET community are expected to follow this policy. Roles, responsibilities and expectations of each section of BPET and school community are set out in detail below.

4.1 Board of Trustees

Trustees will monitor and evaluate the impact of the policy by reviewing pupils' progress in achieving the expected educational outcomes. They will scrutinise relevant data, review any issues that might arise and hold the Headteacher to account for the implementation of the policy.

4.2 Local Governing Board

Local Governors in each BPET school will review and monitor the application and implementation of this policy by receiving regular reports from the Headteacher on educational outcomes. Local Governors will scrutinise relevant data, review any issues that might arise and act as a point of challenge for decisions taken by the Headteacher.

4.3 Headteacher

The Headteacher, with support from their respective Senior Leadership Team and the PSHE lead, will ensure that staff are supported, receive regular professional development training in how to deliver RSE and are up to date with policy changes. They will ensure that Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education is well led, effectively managed and well planned across various subjects (to avoid unnecessary duplication of topics) and that the quality of provision is subject to regular and effective self-evaluation. The Headteacher will ensure that teaching is age-appropriate, delivered in ways that are accessible to all pupils with SEND and that the subjects are resourced, staffed and timetabled appropriately. They will ensure that teaching delivered by any external organisation is age-appropriate and accessible for pupils and will liaise with parents regarding any concerns or opinions regarding Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education provision and will manage parental requests for withdrawal of pupils from non-statutory, non-science components of Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education.

4.4 Staff

Teachers of Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education will ensure that they are up to date with school policy and curriculum requirements regarding sex education and will attend and engage in professional development training. Teachers will encourage pupils to communicate concerns regarding their social, personal and emotional development in confidence, listen to their needs and support them seriously. If a pupil comes to a member of staff with an issue that that member of staff feels they are not able to deal with alone, they will take this concern to their line-manager.

4.5 Parents

BPET hopes to build a positive and supporting relationship with parents through mutual understanding, cooperation and trust. Parents are expected to share the responsibility of sex education and support their children's personal, social and emotional development. BPET hopes parents will create an open home environment where pupils can engage, discuss and continue to learn about matters that have been raised through school. Parents are also encouraged to seek additional support in this from the school their child attends where they feel it is needed.

4.6 Pupils

Pupils are expected to take Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education seriously. Pupils are expected to listen, be considerate of other pupils' feelings and beliefs, comply with class-set confidentiality rules and support one another with issues that arise during class. Pupils who fail to follow these standards of behaviour will be dealt with under the BPET Behaviour policy.

5 Delivery of Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education

- 5.1 Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education will be delivered in a non-judgmental, factual way allowing scope for children and young people to ask questions in a safe environment. Teachers will tailor the delivery of Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education to meet the specific needs of the pupils in that class, and to be responsive to their behaviour and development. Classes will explore different attitudes, values and social labels, and develop skills that will enable our pupils to make informed decisions regarding sex and relationships as well as being able to differentiate between fact, opinion and belief and an understanding of the law on various topics. Pupils will be taught the anatomically correct names for body parts, but slang or everyday terms used in certain social circles will be discussed; this will surround discussion about what is and isn't acceptable language to use.
- 5.2 Staff will ensure that all resources used in the delivery of Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education are appropriate for the age and needs of their pupils.
- 5.3 Parents will be informed about the curriculum content and the resources used to support teaching and learning. Curriculum information will be made available by each school and parents are encouraged to discuss any questions or concerns with the Headteacher or PSHE lead.

Comment:

The School may want to include some examples of materials and some links to teaching and guidance sites that they will make use of. Consider how delivery practices may differ with bubbles and potential distance teaching given the current climate.

It will also be useful to consider how changes to the current national landscape may have impacted on how the curriculum is delivered. Also teachers of Relationships Education and RSE will need to consider the ever-changing technology and how more time spent at home may have impacted on the prominence of online safety.

5.4 Primary schools:

RSE or Relationships Education will be delivered in science, computing and PSHE lessons, but may be referred to in other lessons. Children of the same age may be developmentally at different stages, leading to differing types of questions or behaviours. Staff will use teaching methods that take account of these differences and the potential for discussion on a one-to-one basis or in small groups.

Relationships Education and RSE: Curriculum and Outcomes

- 5.5 By the end of their primary education BPET expects pupils to know the information set out at Annex 1. BPET recognises that primary-age pupils may ask their teachers or other adults questions pertaining to sex or sexuality which go beyond the designed curriculum for RSE or Relationships Education. Teaching methods will take account of the potential different types of questions and behaviours likely to arise and staff will assess which types of teaching methods would be most appropriate (for example, a full class setting, one-to-one discussions or in small groups). There may be occasions where teachers ask parents to answer questions asked because of the sensitive nature of the response. Teaching will follow a planned sequence which builds knowledge progressively across year groups and is developmentally appropriate for pupils' age and stage.

6 Health Education: Physical health and mental well-being

- 6.1 BPET wishes to promote pupils' health and well-being by encouraging self-control, their ability to self-regulate and strategies for doing so. This will enable pupils to become confident in their ability to achieve well and persevere even when they encounter setbacks or when their goals are distant, and to respond calmly and rationally to setbacks and challenges. BPET believes that an integrated, whole-school approach to the teaching and promotion of health and wellbeing will have a positive impact on behaviour and attainment. Health Education will be delivered in PSHE, Science, computing and PE lessons.
- 6.2 Health Education will support pupils to develop resilience, recognise healthy and unhealthy influences, understand how to seek support, and develop strategies to maintain positive physical and mental wellbeing both offline and online.
- 6.3 By the end of their primary education BPET expects pupils to know the information set out at Annex 2.

7 Pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities

- 7.1 BPET will endeavour to ensure that Relationships Education, RSE, and Health Education is accessible for all pupils. We are aware that some pupils are more vulnerable to exploitation, bullying and other issues due to the nature of their SEND. Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education may be particularly important for such pupils, for example those with Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs or learning disabilities. Teaching will be sensitive, age-appropriate, developmentally appropriate, differentiated and personalised. Staff will take account of pupils' developmental stage, communication needs and individual vulnerabilities when planning and delivering Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education.
- 7.2 Staff will make reasonable adjustments to alleviate disadvantages faced by pupils with disabilities and will be mindful of the SEND Code of Practice and the Trust's SEND Policy when planning for these subjects. Staff will use a variety of different strategies to ensure that all pupils have access to the same information.

Comment:

Consider how to set this out to parents/carers when consulting and how this will be used if teaching models will differ in September.

8 Right to request withdrawal from sex education

- 8.1 BPET hopes that parents will feel comfortable with, and understand the importance of, the education provided to their children as described in this policy.
- 8.2 Parents of children in primary schools have the right to withdraw their child from sex education and should state this in writing and send it to their Headteacher. The Headteacher will discuss the request with parents to ensure they understand the curriculum content and the implications of withdrawal before a decision is confirmed.
- 8.3 Before withdrawing or making a request, BPET strongly urges parents to carefully consider their decision as sex education is a vital part of the school curriculum and supports child development. Parents cannot withdraw their child from Relationships Education or Health Education or the elements on human growth and reproduction which fall under the science curriculum.
- 8.4 If a pupil is excused from sex education the respective school will ensure that the pupil receives appropriate, purposeful education during the period of withdrawal.

9 Confidentiality and Child Protection

- 9.1 BPET hopes to provide a safe and supportive school community where pupils feel comfortable seeking help and guidance on anything that may be concerning them about life either at school or at home. All teachers will receive training around confidentiality and should ensure that pupils understand that they cannot offer unconditional confidentiality. Pupils will be reminded that where a member of staff believes a child or another person may be at risk of harm, information must be shared with appropriate safeguarding staff in line with the school's safeguarding procedures. If a safeguarding concern is disclosed to a member of staff, that member of staff should follow the Trust's Child Protection and Safeguarding procedures.
- 9.2 Pupils with special educational needs may be more vulnerable to exploitation and less able to protect themselves from harmful influences. If staff are concerned that this is the case, they should seek support from the Designated Safeguarding Lead to decide what is in the best interest of the child.

10 Equal opportunities

- 10.1 Relationships Education, RSE, and Health Education will be delivered equally to both genders, normally in mixed classes. There are, however, certain topics that may be delivered in single sex groupings e.g. menstruation and personal hygiene.

- 10.2 BPET has a commitment to ensure that Relationships Education, RSE and Health Education is relevant to all pupils and is taught in a way that is age and stage appropriate. Pupils will learn to respect differences between people and families, challenge prejudice and stereotypes, and understand that everyone should be treated with dignity and respect in accordance with the Equality Act 2010. Any bullying that relates to sexual behaviour or perceived sexual orientation will be dealt with swiftly and seriously in accordance with the Trust's behaviour policy.

11 Legislation and guidance

This policy has been developed with reference to:

- Department for Education Relationships Education, Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) and Health Education: Statutory Guidance (2025; effective September 2026)
- Keeping Children Safe in Education (current version)
- Equality Act 2010
- Children and Social Work Act 2017
- Education Act 1996
- SEND Code of Practice (2015)
- National Curriculum for England

12 Complaints

If parents have any concerns or complaints over the application or implementation of this policy they should raise their concerns with a staff member or the Headteacher in accordance with the BPET Complaints Policy.
